Our Seventh Annual February Sale of Fine Household Furniture.

LARGE and complete displays of Fancy and Odd Furniture—furniture of the highest intrinsic worth, and in a very wide and diversified assortment of patterns. All goods are the products of well-known makers; a good portion was bought purposely for this semi-annual sale—the other part is from our own reliable stock. Every piece is marked at

1/4 to 1/2 Below Actual Value.

There are pieces of first quality for all parts of the house—except the kitchen. This is the opportunity for homefurnishers, hotel and restaurant keepers, boarding mistresses, clubs, or any private or public home or organization to take advantage of.

Especially to those just beginning housekeeping should this sale appeal very forcefully. To them it practically means the satisfying of all their contemplated wants in this line at from

25 to 50 Per Cent Less Than Anticipated Cost.

The showing of pieces belonging in the dining-room and bedroom is exceptionally strong—variety and quality are the main characteristics of the entire collection; and then such unusual values are only to be had in our half-yearly sales.

CHARITY REPORTS HEARD

Fund of $27,500 for Year's Work Half Raised.

Reports of the Associated Charities and Citizens' Relief Association, submitted at the meeting of the joint finance committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, show that $26 persons have contributed, 37 of whom gave directly to the Associated Charities, 39 to the Citizens' Relief Association, and the remainder to the joint committee.

Of the $27,500 needed less than one-half has as yet been received.

Last year about 2500 people contributed. The committee feels that the ultimate success of the work must depend upon securing contributions from a large number of donors, who have not been accustomed to give. At the meeting yesterday, Chairman A. Limer announced the appointment of the following committees to take charge of the different branches of the canvass:

Committee on publicity—Scott C. Bone, Herald; Arthur D. Marks, Post; Thomas C. Noyes, Star; Paul C. Patterson, Times.

Committee on membership—Col. George Truesdell,

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, Isaac Gans, Dr. William C. Rivers, and E. Francis Riggs.

Committee on renewals—Horton Jennings, Walter Strison Hutchins, Frederick L. Moore, M. I. Weller, and Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland.

Committee on personal canvass—A. Limer, chairman, John Joy Edson, and Gertrude Thon.

Committee on church cooperation (charity Sunday)—Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, chairman, St. John's Episcopal Church; Rev. Samuel H. Greene, Calvary Baptist Church; Rev. Charles E. Guthrie, Hamilton M. E. Church; Rev. George A. Miller, Ninth Street Christian Church; Rev. U. S. B. Pierce, All Souls' Church (Catholics); Rev. William F. Russell, St. Patrick's Catholic Church; Rev. John Van Schaick, Jr., Church of Our Father (Universalists); Rabbi Abram Simon, Washington Hebrew Congregation; Rev. Charles Wood, Church of the Covenant, Presbyterian; and Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow, First Congregational Church. Laymen: Walter C. Chaplans, John B. Simon, Jr., and E. Francis Riggs.

It is proposed on February 20 to ask the clergymen of Washington to devote a few minutes at one of their services in speaking of the work of these local charities, not for the purpose of asking for a collection, but for the sake of interpreting the relation of this work to that of the churches.

Present at the meeting yesterday were: A. Limer, chairman; Howard S. Reside, treasurer; Corcoran Thon, vice chairman; Walter S. Ufford, secretary; Milton E. Ailes, Scott C. Bone, Walter C. Chaplans, John Joy Edson, Mrs. William Corcoran, Eustis Archibald Hopkins, Walter Strison Hutchins, Heumen Jennings, J. B. Lamer, Arthur D. Marks, John R. McLean, Frederick L. Moore, Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, Thomas

C. Noyes, Paul C. Patterson, Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, E. Francis Riggs, Dr. William C. Rivers, Cuno H. Rudolph, John B. Simon, Jr., William P. Spurgeon, G. W. F. Swartzell, Col. George Truesdell, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, and M. I. Weller.

Regrets were received from S. W. Woodward, Isaac Gans, and Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland.

INDORSE BOOKER WASHINGTON

Negro Baptist Ministers Not in the Alliance.

By resolutions passed yesterday at the weekly conference of the negro Baptist ministers, that body withdrew from the Interdenominational Alliance and Indorsed Booker T. Washington as against Rev. Mr. Wright, who represents other than Baptist churches in the plans for an emancipation celebration on the fiftieth anniversary.

Washington is promoting a bill to have the celebration at Richmond in 1913, and it is understood that he is opposed by many who are not Baptists.

Frederick Rees Is Buried.

The body of Frederick Rees was buried in Rock Creek Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the family residence, 2065 Fourteenth street northwest, Rev. J. Russell Verbruyck, officiating.

WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TO-NIGHT.

At the reception to-night carriages will approach from the north to the east entrance of the White House, opposite the Treasury. Pedestrians will follow the same route. After discharging passengers carriages will be parked around the Ellipse in the White Lot.

The gates will not be open until 9 o'clock. Two carriages will drive under the portico at the same time. Carriages will be provided with numbered checks, which must be preserved by them in order to regain admittance to the grounds. Guests will also be provided with tickets of the same number as their carriages. These they should carefully preserve. In order to call their carriages, which will depart from the same entrance. It is requested that the time of carriages be not delayed by waiting for the carriage to arrive at the entrance. Carriages will be called by electric signal.

After leaving clocks in the cloakroom, guests are requested to fall in line in the colonnade and pass up the main staircase. The southwest gate will be opened at 9 p. m. Carriages will approach this entrance by Seventeenth street.

See the list of branch offices of the want ad. department of The Washington Herald, top of first column, want page, and get "your branch" firmly fixed in your memory.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Taft Hears Mme. Lehmann at the Columbia.

MRS. ANDERSON IS CHAPERON

Cousins and Schoolgirl Friends Who Are Guests at White House Take Tea with Miss Taft on Board the Mayflower—French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand Entertain.

Mrs. Taft, accompanied by Miss Maury and Mrs. Rae, widow of Rear Admiral Rae, occupied the President's box at the Columbia yesterday afternoon at the concert of Mme. Liza Lehman and her company. Others in the audience were Miss Hammond, sister of Mr. John Hays Hammond, and a party of guests; Mrs. Depew, wife of Senator Depew; Mrs. Leiter, Mrs. Hitt, Miss Meyer, the Misses Lee, Mrs. Livingston Hunt, Mrs. William Barrett Ridgley, Mrs. Preston Gibson, Mrs. A. C. Barney, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth.

Miss Taft, her cousins, the Misses Anderson, and her schoolgirl friends, Miss Phyllis Rice and Miss Isabel Winslow, all guests at the White House, took tea on the Mayflower yesterday afternoon, chaperoned by Mrs. Anderson. They drove down to the navy yard in the late afternoon, while Mrs. Taft was at the concert.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained a dinner company last evening, including the British Ambassador and Mrs. James Bryce, the Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Uchida, the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham, Senator and Mrs. Newlands, Senator and Mrs. Flint, Senator and Mrs. Burrows, the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, the Minister to China and Mrs. W. J. Calhoun, who are house guests of the Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson; the Minister to Persia and Mrs. Charles Russell, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Scott, Mme. Matsui, wife of the counselor of the Japanese Embassy, and Mr. de la Rocca, of the French Embassy staff.

President Taft and Mrs. Taft, accompanied by Miss Helen Taft's schoolgirl friends and Lieut. Palmer, occupied a box at the National Theater last night.

The Vice President and Mrs. Sherman were the guests at dinner last night of Mrs. Ludlow, wife of Rear Admiral Nicholas Ludlow, who had sixteen other guests to meet them. Among them were Mr. Justice and Mrs. Holmes and Senator and Mrs. Elkins.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer were dinner hosts last evening in their Scott circle home. Their guests were the Naval Attaché of the Russian Embassy and Mme. Vassellef, Prince Koudacheff, the naval attaché of the British Embassy, Capt. Sowerby; the naval attaché of the German Embassy, Commander Retzmann; the naval attaché of the Italian Embassy, Lieut. Camperio; Surgeon and Mrs. Stokes, U. S. N.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pearsall, Miss Terry, Miss Hopkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frothingham, brother-in-law and sister of Secretary Meyer; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ames, and Miss Haughton, all of whom are house guests of Secretary and Mrs. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marion Johnston entertained a dinner company last evening. Their guests went to the Newberry dance later.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover, who were to have had the "Monday evening dance" last night, in their turn, postponed it until Easter, owing to the dance of Miss Newberry at Rauscher's, to which nearly all of the same dancers were asked. The Clowers will have their dance at Easter instead.

Miss Carol Newberry, daughter of the former Secretary of the Navy, entertained at a small dance last evening for young people, her guests including the young guests at the White House, Miss Helen Taft, Mrs. Taft's nieces, the Misses Anderson, and Miss Winslow, the Misses Rice and Miss Wilson, and Miss Ethel Roosevelt.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the D. A. R., entertained at tea yesterday afternoon. Those who assisted her were Mrs. L. B. Swormstedt, Mrs. William D.
